

ICAR-NBFGR Celebrated Country's 73rd Independence Day at Lucknow

ICAR-NBFGR celebrated country's 73rd Independence Day on August 15, 2019 at its' main campus at Lucknow with great pride and enthusiasm. All the staff members of the institute including research scholars actively participated in commemorating this national festival. The national flag was hoisted at 8.40 AM by Dr. Kuldeep Kumar Lal, Director of the institute. In his address, the Director thanked the contribution and scarifies of great leaders which helped in the freedom struggle. He also highlighted the new achievements of the institute and spoke about the future endeavours planned to conserve aquatic diversity and to work for the betterment of all stakeholders.

He further stated that it is the duty of every staff members to strive for the progress of the institute and ultimately to the nation. He also wished everyone on the auspicious occasion of Raksha Bandhan festival.