During the celebration and valedictory event organized on 26.11.2020, the following speakers expressed their opinions:

The zoom meeting-program started with the welcoming of Chairman Dr. Kuldeep K. Lal, Director, ICAR-NBFGR, Lucknow and the staff of NBFGR HQ, ARTU chinhat and PMFGR Kochi by Dr. Achal Singh, Principal scientist & Nodal HRD, and in his opening speech he highlighted the activities conducted during the year (Nov 26, 2019 - Nov 26, 2020) along with the celebration of the Constitution day (26 November, 2019), with a brief mention of the documents that were released ( a booklet form -hard copy for library and e-book form for circulation) for long remembrance of the events as well. Dr. Gaurav Rathore, HoD, FHME, mentioned that keywords in the Preamble, namely Justice, Liberty, Equality and Fraternity have spatial reference and needs to be incorporated in act and in principle by the staff for the welfare of the system. Dr. Vindhya Mohindra, HoD, FCD, highlighted that equality in pay and work is the need of the hour, for both the staff and the society. She also appreciated the efforts of the Director & the HRD cell from ADG, HRM for successfully reaching the target of 100% staff-trainings, and mentioned what a big achievement this was as well. Dr. Vasudeo Kushwaha, Principal Scientist, threw light on the composition of the Indian constitution, and appreciated the visionary approach of the constituent assembly in crafting such an elaborate document. Dr. Sharad Kumar Singh, from ARTU Chinhat, expressed his views on the constitution provision and appreciated the efforts that went in the making of the e-manual. The SIC PMFGR, Dr. TT, Ajith Kr followed suit, and also expressed his views on the fundamental duties. Dr. K.D. Joshi, Principal Scientist & chairman, PME cell, mentioned that only with the remembrance of the fundamental duties can the campaign "Hum Sudhareng, Yug Sudharenga" be made a success. Dr. T. Rajaswaminathan, Principal scientist, PMFGR, Kochi, asserted that we must respect both the constitution and the nation if we want to grow . In his presidential lecture, Dr. Kuldeep K. Lal, director, ICAR-NBFGR, Lucknow reminded all those present to inculcate discipline, follow guidelines, wear a mask whenever we step out, respect the law of the land and not damage national property. He added that misinterpretation should also be avoided, rules followed, and fundamental duties practiced, to ensure welfare. He then appreciated the efforts of the scientists in the management and coordination of the events, and mentioned that for them to continue to publish scientific papers even in a time of such uncertainty is truly a big achievement.. The program ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Achal Singh, Nodal HRD, in which he expressed thanks to the competent authority for both their ideas & guidance, the HoD Incharges for their visionary support, and other staff for their participation in the year-long Constitution day celebrations. The zoom celebration meeting end with vote of thanks by coordinator, Dr. Achal Singh, Principal Scientist & Nodal.
