

Stakeholders' consultation and fishery-input distribution for livelihood support for inland fish farmers of Puducherry by ICAR-NBFGR

Puducherry, 07.03.2024

ICAR-NBFGR organizes a stakeholders' consultation and fishery-input distribution event for livelihood support for inland fish farmers of Puducherry under the guidance of Dr. U. K. Sarkar, Director, ICAR-NBFGR, on 07th March 2024 in association with Fish for All Centre, M.S. Swaminathan Research Foundation, Poompohar, Kanchi Mamunivar Government Institute for Post Graduate Studies & Research (KMGIPSR), Puducherry. A total of 100 fish farmers from 26 villages of Pondicherry participated in the programme. The necessary inputs for fish farming such as nets for harvesting, hapa, feed etc., were distributed to the beneficiaries during the event. Shri. P.M.L. Kalyanasundaram, Member of Legislative Assembly, Puducherry; Shri. Aman Sharma, Director, Higher & Technical Education, Puducherry; Shri. M. Selvaraj, Director, KMGIPSR; Dr. G.N. Hariharan, Executive Director, MSSRF; Dr. S. Velivizhi, Head, Fish for All Centre, MSSRF; Dr. V. Ravitchandirane, Associate professor, KMGIPSR; Dr. T.T. Ajith Kumar, Dr. A. Kathirvelpandian, scientists of the Bureau participated in the programme.

